THE HARRISON MONUMENT.

Handsome Pile of Stone to Mark the Resting Place of the Late Mrs. Benjamin Harrison.

It is now a few days over eight months since the death of Mrs. Benjamin Harrison was announced to the people of this land, and it was but a few days afterward that the sorrowful relatives and friends followed all that was mortal of the loved woman to a beautiful spot in Crown Hill Cemetery. Nearly everybody is familiar with the incidents of that sad occasion, and have not forgotten the chrysanthemums, the sunshine and the autumnal colorings that strived to soften the realities of the time.

At Mrs. Harrison's grave is to be placed a beautiful pile of stone to mark picture of which is presented, is encourage her resting place. The Indianapolis | ing to the Indianapolis company favored.

agent of the N. Hinsdale's Sons' Granite Company, of Barre, Vt., yesterday received an order from General Harrison, who is at Cape May, for an elegant granite monument, designed by J. R. Lawe, of this city. The design is to be Barre granite, massive in proportious, graceful in outline and sufficiently ornate to be in harmony with its surroundings. It will comprise four huge blocks. Upon the third base will be the name "Harrifour corners of this base are columns, with will rest the massive die, around which near the top will be a handsomely carved astragal. All the details of the monument will be out from models furnished by the granite company, and when completed will be one of the most attractive stones in the cemetery.

General Harrison has had numerous de-signs submitted by dealers from all over the country and a selection of this one, a

Franklin street, in honor of the sixteenth birthday of their daughter Jessie. The reception lasted from 4 to 10 P. M., and was one of the finest, in all its appointments, which has been held for many a day. The house was handsomely decorated through-out, and many elaborate tollets were worn.
